

Get to know Jazz X-Press

Jazz X-Press vocalists rehearse before school in the auditorium.

by Jordyn Kemp

Vocal Jazz is at its peak in the season. With the first performance done, the group is on its way to many more! While many students know about the success of Smooth Harmony, some readers may not know much about Jazz X-Press.

Here are the members of Jazz X-Press 2016-2017:

Cloie Wilson- Soprano
Ci'Ann Richardson- Soprano
Destiny Claybourne- Soprano
Hannah Clemen- Soprano
Kiesha Stelken- Soprano
Lucas Johnson- Bass
Jake Jones- Tenor
Tate Trenkamp- Tenor
Madalynne Naab- Alto
Jordyn Kemp- Alto
Gracie Gellerson- Alto
Jenna Nefzger- Alto
Rose Havens- Alto

These students said they have benefited from vocal jazz in various ways. Madalynne Nabb said that it's helped her learn to get out of her comfort zone and improve her tone. Rose Havens said, "I've learned how to practice well, and I've gained confidence." I learned how to listen to other people. Ci'Ann Richardson said she appreciates the friendly atmosphere.

Jazz X-Press is a music group which performs jazz pieces at competitions. We have four pieces this season, entitled "Doctor Blues," "I Wish You Love," "My Heart Stood Still" and "Bye Bye Blackbird."

The song "Bye Bye Blackbird" means something different to different students. Jenna Nefzger thinks it's about leaving negative thoughts behind, and Ci'Ann Richardson thinks the piece is about following your dreams. A lot of the members concluded that they believe it's about leaving your past behind. Lucas Johnson believes that it's about somebody that they love leaving them.

Some might ask, "How is vocal jazz different from regular choir concert music?" It's a different and much looser style, it's more student-led, and that vocalists need to be more independent in vocal jazz in order to sing the pieces well. Vocal Jazz practices for Jazz X-Press is Tuesday and Thursday mornings from 6:50 to 7:50, with occasional choir time. On Feb. 10 the group competed at Washington High School in Cedar Rapids at its vocal jazz clinic. On Feb. 17, Jazz X-Press goes to the Solon Vocal Jazz Clinic.

Holtz a winner in essay contest by Nichole Winter

Recently, junior Abby Holtz entered the Voice of Democracy essay contest sponsored by The Veterans of Foreign Wars. The Voice of Democracy program gives students the opportunity to express their opinions of the government and beliefs about their own roles. Abby says they want to understand kids' views of the government and how they plan to participate. Students' voices and parts in society make a difference.

The topic Abby wrote for this year was "My Responsibility to America." Abby wrote about how she will actively participate in the government by taking advantage of her liberties. She wants to use her freedom of speech and expression for good in hopes of encouraging others to do the same. Abby also writes about the issue of citizens using their liberties to burn the American flag. She hopes others will make educated decisions and use their liberties and freedoms in positive ways.

For her essay, Abby received third place in Delaware county and was awarded with a certificate. The ceremony for Abby's achievement is on Monday night, but Abby will be unable to attend due to other school activities. Abby wanted to participate in this competition because she likes writing essays like this with an important topic. Abby believes it is very important for our generation to know about recent current events and their roles in society.

Funds raised for cancer patients

The National Honor Society raised over $50 to support the Iowa Chapter of the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society to help families (in Iowa) with blood cancers. NHS members held a half court shot and a parking spot raffle. Winners were allowed to park in the staff parking lot for a day. Winners were Brody Severt, Brock Hillers, Lane Coyle and Eric Deutmeyer.

All four district wrestlers advance to State

Four Maquoketa Valley wrestlers will represent their team at the State Class 1A Wrestling Tournament after qualifying out of the district tournament Saturday, Feb. 11 at Starmont in Arlington.

Two of them, Alex McDowell and Eric Heims, will be making their second trip to the Feb. 16-18 state tourney at Wells Fargo Arena in Des Moines.

McDowell won the 182-pound championship, scoring a 10-1 major decision over Bodie Garnier of Sumner-Fredericksburg in the finals.

Chance Downs (145) and Norman Wilson (170) had to win wrestleback matches to earn the trip to state, and both won in overtime.

Eric Heims also won a wrestleback match at 220, winning 2-1 in an ultimate tie-breaker, to earn his return trip to

Des Moines.

“We had an unbelievable day at the district wrestling meet,” Maquoketa Valley coach Tim Andrews said. “To come in with four qualifiers and get them all to qualify for State is great for our school, program and community.

“These guys have been working very hard for this, and to see their hard work pay off is awesome.”

Boys defeat Rivermont Collegiate, advance to next round

by McKenzie Lansing

The first round of districts for the boys basketball team was a success. The boys defeated Rivermont Collegiate at home with a final score of 74-8, advancing the boys to round two.

“I thought the guys came out ready to play,” commented Coach Dunlap. “We played to our level instead of our opponents. I like that most of our team had scoring opportunities and for the first time this season, we scored in the 70s.”

The top scorers of this game were Clint Krapfl, Jacob Bonert, Tyson Tucker, Cole Willenbring and Blake Becker. Clint scored 12 points. Jacob and Tyson each scored 10 points. Cole and Blake each scored 8 points.

The boys had a total of 24 rebounds. The top rebounders were Tucker, Bonert, Kyle Wilson, and Krapfl. Tyson had a total of 4 rebounds. Jacob, Kyle and Clint each had 3 rebounds.

The boys had a good free throw percentage of 62.5%. They also made over 50% of all of their shots. They had a total of 13 assists and 9 steals. Tucker contributed to 4 of these assets.

“Cole Willenbring did a really nice job coming off the bench and hitting some big buckets,” said Coach Dunlap. “I also thought Clint and Tyson did a nice job scoring.”

They will play their second round of playoffs at North Linn tonight! Come out to support the Wildcats in your neon!

STUDENT OF THE WEEK

Megan McNamara

You recently went out of your way to help a teacher using your artistic skills. Why is it important to help others? It's important to help others because sometimes we can't do things alone. We get by with a little help from our friends. :)

You also help the wrestling team. What do you enjoy most about that? Honestly, the guys are like a second family. We all make fun of each other and have many inside jokes. Overall it's just a great atmosphere. The greatest thing though was Momma Kruse's PB&Js (:

What are you doing to make your senior year a year worth remembering? Taking lots and lots of pictures! But mostly doing stuff 24/7. If someone asks to hang out I usually say yes unless I'm working. I want to hang out with my friends all the time and make so many memories. Plus I've taken some cool road trips my senior year and I'll never forget those. (:

—Megan was nominated by Mrs. Temple

Individual speech begins

Maddy Naab rehearses her individual piece before school. The individual event contest speech season begins Monday night at the conference contest at Alburnett. Districts are next Saturday.

Athletes of the Week

Name: Nichole Winter

Sport: Basketball

What do you enjoy most about basketball?

I love my teammates! They are all my best friends, and I love being with them and helping each other improve.

What's your favorite drill in practice?

One more pass drill

How do you mentally prepare for the game?

We listen to music. Then we talk about the scouting report and our goals for the game.

What's the best motivational song out right now?

Don't ask me. I'm not the best with the songs.

What's been your favorite basketball memory from this season?

Brooke Elgin made a half court shot backwards and blindfolded.

Name: Rejji Smith

Sport: Basketball

What do you enjoy most about basketball? I love how close our team is, it really is my second family.

What's your favorite drill in practice? 15 and a half.

How do you mentally prepare for the game? Jam out to some certain, slightly inappropriate, music with my teammates.

What's the best motivational song out right now? "All the Way Up"

What's been your favorite basketball memory from this season? Definitely going down to the US Cellular Center.

We made a lot of new cheers for the bench and it was a great experience for the team, on the big court, against some tough competition.

I stare at you, you stare at me. I have three eyes, yet I cannot see. Every time I blink, I give commands. You do as your told with your feet and your hands. What am I?

Answer: Traffic Light

JV team wraps up season

by Mason Lubben

The varsity boys basketball season continues, but the JV squad has wrapped up its season. This year's JV basketball went 3-18. The Cats went 3-4 in conference games. Although the Cats did not have the winning success that they wished, great improvements were made. Coach Eric Conner is the new coach. The Cats had many close games that were within reach, but just couldn't stick it out.

Leading scorers of the team included Blake Becker, Brian Heims and Pablo Ostos. Leading with assists were Mason Lubben, Blake Becker, and Brian Heim.

Coach Connor said all season: "You have the talent; now you have to have the heart."

Rebekah & Amanda:

Chong Garden in Manchester: So we obviously love food. Chinese is definitely one of our main hit-ups. We highly recommend Chong Garden in Manchester. The food is great and the price is very reasonable. Our favorites are sesame chicken and crab rangoons. Go check it out for yourself today!

Rebekah:

Beauty & The Beast: I love love love this movie. This is by far one of my favorite Disney films. Belle loves her father very much, and she will do anything for him. So, when the time comes she sacrifices herself to a beast, and in exchange her father go. Belle, Gaston, the Beast, everything makes this movie perfect. Everyone must watch this movie at least one, but I advise that you watch it multiple times!

Hometown Girl sung by Josh Turner:

This song is one that I could listen to on repeat for hours. A song with a good beat, great vocals, and a good looking singer. This song is about a man loving a girl, and everything that she is. A great song, that everyone should take the time to listen to.

Friends: Ross, Monica, Chandler, Joey, Phoebe, Rachel. The six best friends, that everyone wishes their friend group could be like. Taking place in New York City, we follow the lives of the six friends as they attempt to navigate through: break-ups, proposals (numerous), jobs, dating, marriage, kids. A show that always has me laughing and wanting more. This show has easily become one of my friends, and as soon as you watch it there is no way that you won't love it too!

Amanda:

How to Lose a Guy in 10 Days: This romantic comedies has been one of my favorite movies ever since it came out. The story follows Andie, a magazine journalist, as she takes on the daunting task of written a piece about what women do drive away men. It also follows Benjamin as he tries to win a bet by having a women fall in love with him in ten days. This movie is hilarious and cute. Also, Matthew McConaughey is in it so, you're welcome.

Shape of You sung by Ed Sheeran:

Bekah of course introduced me to this song, and I haven't been able to stop listening to it. It's upbeat and makes you want to get up and dance. This song is different from everything else I listen to but I still enjoy it every time. Do yourself a favor and check out Shape of You.

Glee: This has become one of my all-time favorite show. It has quirky characters, great music and performances, and everything you could ever want. In a high school in Ohio Mr. Schue decides to take over the school's glee club. Through the seasons we see the glee club transform and grow. Every episode puts you on the edge of your seat and begging for more!

Birthday Shoutouts!

by Chance Downs

It's never too early or too late to tell a fellow classmate Happy Birthday!

This week's birthdays are:

- 2/18 - Zach Tanner
- 2/19 - Abby Holtz
- 2/20 - Daniel Hunter, Abraham Miles
- 2/22 - Mitch Smith

by Brody Severt

Well, Wildcats, we have a short week this week, which I know we all appreciate. This week I had some trouble coming up with the theme for this week's issue of the Wildcat Echo. So I thought what better to do than to ask a lucky few of you some riddles? Tyson Tucker, Josie Young, Allie Knipper and Cody Hunter will be trying to guess these riddles.

What is the only room with no windows or doors?

Tyson: room service
Josie: a basement
Allie: the attic
Cody: bedroom
Answer: Mushroom

The more it dries the wetter it gets.

Tyson: a towel
Josie: water
Allie: towel
Cody: sponge
Answer: a towel

What belongs to you, but others use it more?

Tyson: your name
Josie: my name
Allie: your name
Cody: identity
Answer: your name

The man who built it doesn't want it, the man who bought it doesn't need it, the man who needs it doesn't know it.

Tyson: eh a boat
Josie: coffin
Allie: a coffin
Cody: casket
Answer: a coffin

A seven letter word containing thousands of letters.

Tyson: mailbox
Josie: letters
Allie: mailbox
Cody: picture
Answer: Mailbox

Good job to all our riddle solvers this week. These ones were pretty challenging, but you all gave it your best. That's all for this week folks. Also a good luck to all of the Wildcats at their district games, state wrestling, and all-state speech competitions.
