Fine Artist of the Week

by Becki Burkle

Name: Abby McDonald
Grade: 12

Activity being recognized for: Speech and Drama

How long have you been involved with speech and drama?: since I was a freshman

Why do you like speech/drama?: I like the ability to change myself-not physically, but through my voice and reactions. It makes it easier to understand yourself when you've been somebody else for awhile.

What's your favorite thing to perform?: Apparently I'm very good at performing young children. :) In reality, I enjoy performing anything, although I like performing humorous characters the best.

Who is your greatest role model?: No one, really. I'd rather just try to be myself.

Got Yearbook?

Now's a good time to order one!
See Mrs. Temple for details!
