Horoscopes...What's in your future???

taken from www.astrology.com

Aries- Someone's puzzling behavior or an unexpected turn of events has you thrown for a loop. You're not quite sure how to react, but you know you want to take your time with this one.

Taurus- Don't buy something just because it looks good on a friend of yours. That's just not smart -- in fact, it's almost as bad as flirting with someone just because someone else likes them. Make your own decisions and you'll be happier in the long run.

Gemini- Feel like a friend might not be telling you the complete truth about something? Ask them straight out what's going on. It might be the only way you get all the answers.

Cancer- Lately it takes practically no time for you to come up with answers. As soon as you hear a question, you're off and running. Make sure you don't draw any conclusions before you know the full story.

Leo- A chance meeting might turn out to be just what the doctor ordered to revive your love life. All of a sudden you've got a new crush and it's all you can think about. You may meet this person in a very unlikely place, so keep your eyes open at all times!

Virgo- It might bug you that other people don't take things as seriously as you do. When you're going after something, you probably don't want any outside distractions. When something comes up, try to deal with it as diplomatically as possible.

Libra- A certain cutie might be front-and-center in your subconscious. The few friends who know you well enough to read your thoughts will probably know you're obsessing, but hopefully they'll keep your secret. You don't need the whole world to find out about this.

Scorpio- When a friend or classmate gets on your nerves today, you might be more than ready to tell them off. Be careful, though. It might not lead to any resolution -- just more and more trouble.

Sagittarius- Although you're probably one of the most creative people in your class, you may not take yourself as seriously as other artistic types do. On your list of priorities, having fun ranks up there with conquering the world.

Capricorn- With the way things are going in your personal life right now, you may wonder if you'll ever have a normal life. Don't sweat it. The major stresses of today should lighten up gradually.

Aquarius- A speech or presentation you give today might be even more impressive because it's totally not by the books. You can make an impression that will last for a long time. People who are afraid to take chances may not know what to make of you.

Pisces- Even though you're supposedly friends with a certain someone, you may not understand their behavior recently. It's probably pretty hard for you to figure out how to respond.
