

Horoscopes...What's in your future???

taken from www.astrology.com

Aries- Something seems so important right now you won't be able to take no for an answer. If the worst happens, you'll find you're stronger than you thought, but good results should happen if you make your passion known to the right person.

Taurus- School may be contributing to your feeling down right now. You want to take your time with something, while everyone else is rushing ahead. Get some one-on-one with someone who can help you out.

Gemini- Are you ready to make a big decision? Double-check with someone you look up to before committing. You have your heart set on a special outcome; their advice will help you get there.

Cancer- You're thinking fast, but might be talking even faster. Slow down and try not to hurt the feelings of someone you love, even if they're making you angry right now.

Leo- An event that you're really not looking forward to will turn out to be fun -- all thanks to you! Don't waste time being cranky; instead, just kick back and enjoy yourself.

Virgo- You may have a run-in with a teacher or boss; try to just smile and nod until they get over their fussy fit. If you're not making as much money as you need right now, try to come up with a new way of making a few bucks.

Libra- You think something bad is going on, but it's all in your head. Your friends love you, you've got a secret admirer with a huge crush on you and your family thinks you're doing just fine. Stop with the worrying, already!

Scorpio- Your life is really intense right now -- you could use a break. Make some time for a relaxing sort of workout, like swimming or yoga. If you've got a big project coming due, today's a great day to get started.

Sagittarius- You're in the mood to just hang out with friends, so why not try something new with them instead of the same old boring stuff? Make it exciting: go snowboarding, rock climbing or venture into a new part of town.

Capricorn- If you have an older relative around, go for a visit and ask about their life. They'd love to see you, and you'll hear some much cooler stories than you might expect.

Aquarius- Whether it's a funky coffee shop or a giant political rally, you're craving the companionship of exciting people with original ideas. Think of it as a treasure hunt -- you never know where you might find them!

Pisces- You suspect a friend is lying to you, or at least not telling the whole truth. You won't be able to sort out the answer easily right now -- give yourself time to figure out how to deal with it.
