In Baphomet's Eyes

Deep down inside
I feel a burning pain
Like the coming of sun
And departing of rain
To see a meadow bloom
With colors; all galore
I wish it all be frozen
Like Hell's icy shore
Be taken out by darkness
Covering the skies
I'll see my glowing beauty and hold her in my eyes
Embracing her in shadow
Wishing for time to stop
And tears void of sorrow
Those tears will solemnly drop
I'll hold my love so close
Never let her get away
We'll hold on forever
beneath the skies of Baphomet
The Dark embracing skies
A love the gods despise
A love that never dies
In the eyes of Baphomet

The pits of Hell froze over filling in with snow
A city burning in the distance
Gives off a hellish glow
Deep within the woods
I see my life before my being
My life beheld by death
My life that was worth seeing then Time, again, unstops
And we grow old too soon
But we grow old together
Underneath the moon
The fire then extinguished
By tearfalls from your face
And grey skies cataloguing
Heavens fall from Grace

What's Up?

by Melissa Thompson

What do you think of the homecoming dance being on Friday night after the game?

Krystal Johnson- I don't think they are going to have a very good turn out.

Jill White- No one is going to go and it's not fair because underclassman don't get to experience it.

Beth Harris- Underclassman are not even getting a dance at all this year.

Robyn Bush- There is a really good chance that no one will show.

Chris Goerd- Half the people can't go. It's really sad that we have to miss out of this when they only come once a year. And you only have four years of High School.

Miriam Anderson- It's pointless to have it scheduled because no one is going to show up. It's one thing that underclassmen looked forward to.

Natasha Klaren- I don't care for it on a Friday night. People do not want to go to a dance after a football game.

Mitch Tanner- I don't think many people are going to want to go to this. It is right after a football game so it won't be as fun.

Adam Anderson- It's after the football game so no one will feel like going.

Justy Feldt- As a football player, I won't feel up to going to a dance after playing a hard game.
