

Microphone, please...

Brian Schuster and John Eiben rehearse Radio News for district speech contest.

What's Up?

by Mekell Helle

What is your New Year's Resolution?

Derek Offerman- to be all-conference in baseball

Scott Hoeger- buy a new car

Michelle Durey- get better grades

Kory Nefzger- to be conference champ in wrestling

Randy Murray- learn sign language

Kelsey Melchert- "I don't have one, I'm happy with my life."

Nathan Burger- To do something completely original

Mike Roling- finish wrestling season with a winning record

Annie Ehls- get a job

Chris Klaren- pass Advanced Algebra

Athletes of the Week

by Jamie Stelken

Name: Jake Norlin

Sport:

Basketball

How long

have you

been in-

involved in this sport?

Since I

was two years old.

Most

memo-

orable

moments:

The last

shot

sophomore year when Beckman beat us. I hate it!

Motto: If you're going to bite butts with a bear, don't let the bear bite first.

Best part of the sport: The big games.

Best advice: Live it up!

Fine Artists of the Week

by Amber Cummings

This week's artists are Miranda Knake, Kelly Freiburger, Audrey Salow and Aaron Dunham for their work in large group speech.

What is your favorite part about being in a one act play?

Kelly, Miranda, and Audrey all said it was a lot of fun, and they enjoy being characters in the play. Aaron said his favorite part was getting the performance over with.

What is the hardest part?

They all said that memorizing lines was the hardest part.(20 pages) Aaron said it was hard for him not to laugh with Miranda holding a chair above his head.

Name:

Mark

Beatty

Sport:

Wrestling

How long

have you

been in-

involved

in this sport?

since Kindergarten

What

is your favorite part? being on my feet

Most memorable moment: winning Natitionals in 8th grade

Role Model: Cael Sandersen

