Ask Audrey

Dear Audrey,

I think my brain is going to explode! Between jazz band and Seussical rehearsal, my part-time job and homework, I'm feeling overwhelmed. Do you have any suggestions for ways to keep my sanity? I need to relieve some stress!

-Getting gray hairs at age 15

Dear Getting Gray Hairs at Age 15,

I can totally feel for you guys because I am in a lot of extra activities too. Whenever I get totally stressed out I either get away from everything and go hang out with my friends after Seussical practice or just taking some time to myself really helps. And I know you're really coming up short on time, but as you keep going you'll learn to manage it a lot better. So, no worries!

Love Always,
Audrey

The boys team ran well also at Monticello. The leader of the pack was Willey in 21st at 18:21. Behind him was Ries in 44th at 18:56, Keith followed close behind in 59th at 19:58, Murray came in at 23:10, and Nurre came in right behind him at 89th in 24:14.

With all the excitement from everyone around and especially the runners, Coach Mensen had a chance to say, "I was ecstatic about how the girls ran whether the score was good enough or not to qualify for state. I couldn't have asked for a better performance from these girls. This was what I knew they were capable of. When we finished just 9 points behind MFL at the West Delaware meet, the reality of beating them to qualify for state started to sink in. Then to surpass MFL by 22 points- AND finish just 9 points behind Bennett - Durant...WOW!!!!!!!"

Congratulations Girls, you earned it and now run your best and have fun! What a great way to finish the season!

These Girls will be running in Fort Dodge on Saturday. Results will be in next week's issue.
