Fine Artists of the Week

by Amber Cummings

Are fine artist's of the week are Lalaina Rabary, Philip Mueller, Mike Salow, and Laura Seibert. They are all auditioning for all-state together.

What kinds of songs do you sing? They sing many songs, but right now they are working on their all state songs.

Does the group get along with each other? Yes. They are "da bomb" together. They blend well.

What is your favorite thing about the group? They all love each other and they like hearing mike and philip sing soprano. They like to hear Lalaina sing in her low voice. They like to see Laura smile. They always have a fun time!

Jen Schooley- All my teachers have influenced me in different ways, and they are all equally my favorite.
Kyle Klaren - Mr. Marting- He's very outgoing.

Ask Audrey

Dear Audrey,

The storms in Florida have been terrible. Last week it was Charlie, this week it is Jeanne.

Now they have boys names for hurricanes, where they used to be all called girl names. But shouldn't the boy ones be called him-a-canes?

Sincerely,
Just Wondering

Dear Just Wondering,

I'm not quite sure if the boy ones should be called him-a-canes. What I want to know is how they figure out the gender in the first place. Is there something that signifies if the storm is male or female?

Love Always,
Audrey
