

Meet The Freshmen

Above: Samantha Bacon, Kyle Knipper, Alex Sellner. Not present: Ty Wheeler by Felicia Harbach

Freshmen: Alex Sellner, Ty Wheeler, Samantha Bacon and Kyle Knipper

First Thoughts of High School:

Alex: I thought it would be very different

Ty: fun and easy

Samantha: awesome!

Kyle: excited/ nervous

Activities:

Alex: I don't think anything

Ty: basketball and golf

Samantha: choir

Kyle: football, basketball, baseball

Favorite new privileges:

Alex: freedom

Ty: gum and ala carte

Samantha: being able to get ice cream

Kyle: lunch/pick classes

Siblings:

Alex: None

Ty: Ryan Wheeler (graduate)

Samantha: Alecia Bacon (graduate)

Kyle: None

Favorite Class:

Alex: Small Engines

Ty: Drafting and Spanish

Samantha: Science

Kyle: Physical Science

Hall Smarts

by Aaron Dunham

This week's contest had everything. Football, government, math, english, and blissful people. Kyle Klaren, Holly Wilson, Neal Johnson, and Curtis Thommen collided in this head to head competition.

1. Who won Super Bowl XXXX?

Kyle- No one

Holly- Rams

Neal- No one

Curtis- Bears (I'll give you half a point because I have a feeling they will win next year)

Answer: No one. It won't be played until next year.

2. What does FDA stand for?

Kyle- Federal Department of Intelligence (A not I)

Holly- Federal Dentist Association (Yeah so close, but no)

Neal- Food and Drug Administration

Curtis- Food and Drug Administration

Answer: Food and Drug Administration

3. Spell illiteracy.

Kyle- illteracy (Do you know what it means?)

Holly- illiteracy

Neal- illiteracy

Curtis- illiteracy

4. How many sides does a trapezoid have?

Kyle- 4

Holly- 4

Neal- 4

Curtis- 4

Answer: 4

5. How many US senators are there?

Kyle- 101 (Senators not Dalmatians)

Holly- 50

Neal- 100

Curtis- 100

Answer: 100

Neal Johnson leaves the arena as a winner with 5 points. Curtis pulled in close with 4.5 points. Kyle and Holly were left far behind with 2 points a piece. Until next week remember that ignorance is bliss and if you don't know what ignorance is you are blissful.

WHAT'S HAPPENING AT MV the week of FEBRUARY 14, 2005

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 2005

1. Deadline for March Newsletter Articles - Please Give to Cheryl

2. First Legal Practice for HS Baseball

3. Dollars for Scholars Seniors & Parents Scholarship Meeting - Auditorium - 6:30 PM

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 2005

1. HS JV/V Boys Basketball at North Linn - 6:30 PM (Bus Leaves at 5:15 PM)

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 2005

1. NEIBA District Scholarship Auditions - HOME - HS Chorus & Band Rooms - 7:00 PM

2. HS V Girls District Basketball - HOME - MV vs Monticello - 7:00 PM

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 2005

1. HS Softball Pitching & Catching Practice - MS Multipurpose Room - 6:30 to 7:45 AM

2. HS Registration for 2005-06 Classes Begins

3. JH Boys Basketball at Anamosa - 4:30 PM (Bus Leaves at 3:20 PM)

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 2005

1. HS JV/Varsity Boys Basketball - HOME - Maquoketa - 6:30 PM

2. HS FFA Sweetheart Crowning Ceremony - During Half-Time of the Varsity Game

3. Music Boosters HS Dance - Middle School Commons Area - 9:00 PM until Midnight

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 2005

1. HS Band to UNI Tall Corn Jazz Festival in Cedar Falls (Bus Leaves at 7:30 AM)

2. MV Elementary Basketball League Games - Earlville Gymnasium - 8:00 AM until 2:00 PM

3. HS District Wrestling at Anamosa - 10:00 AM (Van Leaves at 8:30 AM)

4. HS Baseball Pitching & Catching Workouts - MS Multipurpose Room - 9:00 AM

5. HS V Girls District Basketball - HOME - 7:00 PM