

Wildcat Echo

A publication by the students of Maquoketa Valley High School

Prom 2005: 'Til the Stroke of Midnight

by Miranda Knake

Spring is in the air, and with this wonderful time of year comes the anticipation of Prom! Members of the junior class have been working hard to bring the magic of Prom to Maquoketa Valley.

Prom will take place this year on April 30th at the High School. The Grand March will be outside from 7:30-8:15 P.M. Prom will take place in the high school gym from 8:00 until the stroke of midnight. Also, the doors to Prom will close at 8:30 P.M. The DJ for Prom is Upbeat Entertainment.

Following the Prom is Post Prom in the middle school multi-purpose room. Post Prom is from 12:00 A.M. to 4:00 A.M. The Post Prom theme is "Laissez Les Bon Temps Rouler," French for "Let the Good Times Roll."

This is sure to be a night of enchantment for all!

Let the painting begin! Jordan Keith, Beth Klostermann and Josh Tucker work on the walls that will line the gym. The juniors have been working after school this week and will begin decorating the gym next week.

MV to Host Conference Art Fair

by Maggie Seibert

The time is finally here for the Maquoketa Valley Art Show. Many students are participating in helping out, setting up, and even displaying their own art works.

The Art show will be held both Friday and Saturday. Mr. Seibert and his students are pretty busy working on displays and setting up. The art show displays will be in the Middle school gym. The follow up will be the Dollars for Scholars

Saturday night at 5 o'clock. This will help raise money for all the seniors. Many different sorts of art work will be auctioned off and sold.

During the art show, many people just look at many different displays. Students from other schools also bring in displays. The displays will then be judged by certain people who come in. Good art projects will receive ribbons.

Remembering way back when, when I used to tag along with my dad, the art show was a great way to see all the neat and interesting art projects. The turnout will hopefully be as good as I remember.

Mr. Seibert commented, "It is a great way for the art students to display their fine arts and talents in art and also to promote the program."

Good luck to all who are participating and hope to see you there!

Michelle Boge, under the supervision of Mr. Seibert, helps set up for the conference art fair. (photo by Kathie Palmer-sheim)

