

John Wayne Eiben

Activities in which you've been involved in high school: Concert band, marching band, pep band, speech- Large and Individual, 2001 Spring comedy, German Club

Most memorable moments: The numerous "flop houses" of Hopkinton, playing in the snow, skinny dipping in the lake in December, wrong way down the one way, die Bergziege, the cabin, Variety Show '04!, Moshpits, Sevendust, Speech bus, Canada, sliding down banisters, tunnels, the river, the farm, Sacred Evil with Grewsum, Am. Lit Music video, boxing, Slipknot.

What are your plans after graduation? Going to Millikin University, working with Broken Vow, living the good life in a castle in Germany or Idaho.

What will you miss most about high school? Rules, because after this there aren't and talking to anyone.

Motto: Arbeit macht Frei- "work makes free"

Advice to underclassmen: Do homework, the rest is cake. Oh, and be nice to Mr. Kuehl and he'll be nice to you.

As I prepare for graduation, I'd like to thank: My mom, Steffen for pulling me out, my band, Steff for being generous, other family members, Tim for his advice, and Jessica for Ravin.

Favorites....

Song: "Her Ghost in the Fog"- Cradle of

Gifh

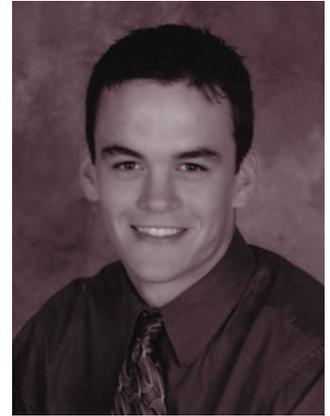

Food: Tenderloins- Asian King Buffet

Class: Art

Teacher: Mr. Foster

Robbie Mohr

Activities in which you've been involved in high school: Football (4), Baseball (4), Basketball (4), Track (3), German (4).

Most memorable moments: State playoff's football- '02, '04, State Track '03, Bonfires- summers, girls state basketball -'03, '04, Driving around , New year's , Jake's Pond, State Basketball last year, Tristan's Bon Fire, Tubing with the guys, Jon finding out the poop floats and then going over it several times, winning Klaren's money in pool, J.T.F.M.

What are your plans after graduation? Go to college-play baseball.

What will you miss most about high school? People talking about other people! All the gossip! Hearing the girls talk about other girls clothes!

Advice to underclassmen: Start running and don't look back.

As I prepare for graduation, I'd like to thank: My mommy and daddy.

Favorites....

Song: 99 Problems- Jay-Z

Another Brick Wall- Korn

Brush Your Shoulders Off- Jay-Z

Food: Pork Steak

Teacher: Mrs. Lewin, Mr. Foster