What are your plans after graduation? Basically undecided, probably Graphic Design, somewhere in the art field.

What will you miss most about high school? My friends, Mr. Seibert picking on me every day, no not really.

Advice to underclassmen: Don't procrastinate and have fun, you're only in high school once, ... well maybe!?!

As I prepare for graduation, I'd like to thank: My mom for being my best friend, for always helping me through those tough times, and always being there for me when I needed her the most.
