

Meet The Freshmen

by Felicia Harbach

Here are five fresh faces from the class of 2008. These five freshmen all seem to agree that high school will most definitely be more enjoyable than middle school.

This week Hannah Hardin, Callie Krapfl, Matt Klaren, Ricky Gearhart, and Kallyn Ford join us. Their interests vary from fine arts to sports to Agriculture to those who aren't interested in any extra or co-curricular activities.

Kallyn and Callie are pacing themselves through cross-country at the moment and will continue their athletic involvement in basketball and track. Hannah wishes to perform in the school play. Matt takes the field in football, will hit the mat in wrestling, and hopefully putt away in golf. Ricky is currently not planning on being involved in any activities.

High school life must be treating them fairly. These kids do seem to enjoy their freedom to make their own choices at lunch, being able to chew gum, the trust of the teachers, having older people in class and having different classes.

As far as older siblings go, most of our freshmen have ties to an upperclassman for support. Nora Hardin, a senior, Chris Klaren, a senior, Matt Krapfl, a junior. Kallyn's siblings Ted and Allison have both graduated and Ricky has none.

Fave classes include Spanish (Kallyn, Callie, Hannah, Ricky) and Ag (Matt).
