

PERMANENT RECORDS - SPECIAL EDUCATION STUDENTS

The records of resident pupils of the Maquoketa Valley Community School District who are attending classes outside this school district, on a full-time basis, for which the Maquoketa Valley School District pays the receiving school district tuition, will be maintained in the office of the school district secretary. Upon completion of those studies or training for which the Maquoketa Valley School District is responsible, the records of that student will be processed as any other permanent student record and be preserved in accordance with local and state requirements.
