

Speech team wins conference title for tenth year in a row

by Rebecca Hill

Saturday, January 16th the Maquoketa Valley Speech teams headed to Alburnett High School to compete in Conference Large Group Speech Contest. Twenty-nine groups performed resulting in twenty-three ones, five twos, and One-Act performing for comments only. The Maquoketa Valley 10th-12th speech team kept the Eagle, the conference championship title, for the tenth year in a row.

Nine performances ranked in the top three based on judges' selection on Saturday. Radio Broadcasting, RUOK (Kristi Goedken, Natalie Neuzil, Laisee Shakespeare, Dylan Wright, Cassiddy Wilson, and Cassi Westhoff); Ensemble Acting, Film Noir (Shaylyn Trenkamp and Alex McCusker); 9th grade Readers Theatre, The Nameless Princess (Blake Becker, Lane Coyle, Katilyn Deutmeyer, Maci Freiburger, Faith Hunt, Daniel Hunter, Hannah Lahr, Kristin Lucas, Izzy Niehaus, Megan Rausch, Kelsey Ries, Chloe Roling, Jon Seibert, Katie Synder, Tate Trenkamp, and Brooke Wilson); Musical Theatre, Wicked (Taylor Guthrie and Riley Strenhagen); Group Improvisation (Erin Digmann, Megan McNamara, Brianna Mensen, Heath Gibbs, and Alex McCusker), all ranked first in their categories. Group Mime, Suffering in Silence (Megan Hogan, Lea Ries, BrieAnna Nielson, Han-

by Nichole Lucas

This year Maquoketa Valley's T.A.T.U. group is made up of 21 students. For those of you not sure what T.A.T.U. stands for, it stands for Teens Against Tobacco Use. For six weeks this group will go over to the sixth grade classrooms to lead hands-on activities to teach the sixth graders about tobacco products and the dangers that come with them.

Last Thursday, the boys travelled to Edgewood to play Ed-Co. The guys played hard again last Thursday, and again had their chances to win. After coming out of halftime, down 5 points, they fought hard to get some turnovers and points. They took the lead, 39-36 in the third quarter. It was a very time game after, until late in the fourth quarter, we fell a little short," states Coach Dunlap.

The top three scorers were Brock Hillers with 26 points, Jacob Bonert with 14 points, and Kyle Wilson with 10 points. The team had a total of 28 rebounds. The top rebounders were Jacob Bonert with 6 rebounds, Garrett Hogan with 5, and Calvin Orcutt, Clint Krapfl, and Kyle Wilson each with 4 rebounds.

"Kalvin Orcutt and Brock Hillers had a nice scoring night and Jacob had a great night scoring 16 points and picking up 6 rebounds," says Coach Dunlap. The boys did pretty good on the Free Throw line, the team making 61% of their shots. Calvin Orcutt had a great night making 87.5% of his Free Throws.

The boys then faced the West Delaware Hawks on the Wildcat's court on Saturday. They suffered a tough loss, with a final score of 26-71, a win for the Hawks. "The boys had a great first quarter, but we lost our intensity," says Coach Dunlap. He goes on to say, "We need to continue to push ourselves and keep up the intensity."

Our top scorers for this game were Brock Hillers with a total of 9 points, and Calvin Orcutt, Clint Krapfl, and Jacob Bonert each scoring 4 points.

The boys picked up a total of 20 rebounds. The top rebounders were Calvin with 4 rebounds, and Brock Hillers, Garrett Hogan, Clint Krapfl, and Jacob Bonert each with 3 rebounds.

This game could've been greatly improved; however, some good things did happen. Calvin Orcutt and Kyle Wilson each made 100% of their Free Throws and Trevor Elgin made 50% of his.

This Tuesday, the boys travelled to Springville to face the Orioles. They played a fantastic game with the final score being 51-47, a win for the Wildcats.

"It took everyone to get this win at Springville," says Coach Dunlap. "Our guys have been working really hard in practice and have been upbeat, which can be difficult to do when you don't get the wins you deserve."

"The posts played physical and set the tone, making Springville respect us down low. That helped open things up on the outside," states Coach Dunlap.

Our top scorers were Brock Hillers with a total of 17 points, Ryan Geodken with a total of 10 points, and Calvin Orcutt and Jacob Bonert each scoring 8 points for the team.

We had a total of 31 rebounds. The top rebounders were Jacob Bonert with 12 rebounds, and Brock Hillers, Calvin Orcutt, and Kyle Wilson each picking up 5 rebounds.

The boys had a great game. They made 60% of their Free Throws. Calvin made 75% of his free throws. Brock Hillers and Garrett Hogan made 50% of their 3-pointers. "Ryan Goedken shot well, going four for seven on the night. Brock Hillers poured in 17 points and Jacob Bonert had 12 rebounds," says Coach Dunlap. He adds, "Kyle Wilson had 4 assists and Clint Krapfl had 2. This was a really nice team victory."

The boys travelled to Starmont last night to face the Stars. The stats for that game will be in the next Echo.

Come out to Calamus- Wheatland tonight to support your Wildcats against the Warriors!

Girls team headed in right direction

by Kristi Goedken

The Maquoketa Valley Wildcat girls are continuing to take steps forward during their conference games. Last Thursday our very own Wildcats traveled north to take on the Vikings of Ed-Co in a non-conference game.

As Ed-Co got off to a great start in their game, the Wildcats quickly responded. At the end of the first quarter, MV led 24-11 and didn't slow down. After playing a hard fought game for 32 minutes, the Wildcats were able to add another win to their record with a 70-35 win.

With a core group of six seniors leading the way, Megan, Shawnae, Angie, Erin, Kristi, and Sienna, those six girls were able to account for 34 of the teams 70 points. The senior girls connected on 13 of their 16 shots.

Statistical leaders were junior Brianna Mensen with 21 points, followed by Megan Mensen with 13 and Erin Digmann with 12. Digmann shot 75% from 3-point range connecting on 3 of 4 3-pointers. Caitlin Schumann was able to grab 5 boards while Freshman Sam Wall pulled down 4. B. Mensen was able to dish 6 assists. The Wildcats were able to get 20 steals against the Vikings which turned into easy points for MV.

"I have to give Ed-Co a lot of credit in this game," stated Coach Moenck. "They really came out and punched us in the mouth right away. We really weren't ready for that. It was good for us to have to get over the hump. We really settled down late in the first quarter and played really good defense and finished around the bucket. I was very proud of Megan Mensen with how aggressive she was offensively. She did a great job of attacking the bucket. We have a lot of room to grow but we are for sure heading in the right direction."

Stats from the Pink Out Cats' victory over West Delaware will be in next week's issue. MV won with a final score of 49-31. Check next week for stats over MV's loss to Springville and game with Starmont.

Fine Artists of the Week

Name: Kaleb Handel
Activity: Speech

What event are you in for speech?
One Act Play
What do you enjoy most about large group speech?

Going to speech events and meeting new people there.

What have you learned through this event?

You can't be worried about what you look like or sound like on stage. If you worry too much then people

Who is your speech role model?

Matthew Lansing for sophomore year helping me with my first year in speech.

If you could judge a large group speech event, what would it be? Why?

Improv because they are really interesting

Athletes of the Week

Name: Kaleb Kruse
Sport: Wrestling

What weight are you wrestling at this year?

Heavyweight

What are your goals this year? Make it to districts

What's the hardest part of wrestling?

Sprints after wrestling six minutes

What's something about wrestling non-wrestlers may not know? It is a lot of hard work, takes a lot of time and commitment

Do you have any pre-meet traditions?

Have fun on the bus rides to the meets

Name: Briana March
Sport: Dance team

What do you enjoy most about dance team?

I enjoy being able to see what we are able to do in such a short time. As a team we are able to learn and perform a dance in 3 to 4 days. I also love being around the girls and forming friendships with all of them.

What's the hardest part of it? The hardest part of dance is staying focused at practice. We have a lot to do in a short amount of time.

What's your favorite routine you've ever been a part of? What did you like about it? I don't know if I have just one routine that is my favorite. There is parts of all the routines that I like. I just enjoy performing them all.

What's something about dance most people don't realize? I don't think most people realize how difficult it is to be a dancer. People think that dancing is "easy" but its really not. I have been a part of many teams and dancing is very strenuous on your body. Many people don't like to think that dance is a sport but it is. We work as hard as any other team but we our working is doing a dance over and over again until it is perfect. Our routines are like a play in basketball. If the players don't memorize and perfect the play the team won't score. If we don't memorize and perfect our dances we won't perform well.

If you could choreograph a routine, what kind would it be? I enjoy choreographing Country Hip Hop.

Don't miss out!

Do's and Don'ts of College/Real World Preparation

by Shaylyn Trenkamp

Seniors, we are now over halfway done with our last year of high school. Soon, we will be getting ready to tackle college or the workforce and the real world. Juniors, sophomores, and freshmen: believe it or not, you're not far behind! So, as many scholarships and the looming FAFSA roll around this time of year, I find it very fitting to hand out some hints on how to truly prepare for the next step in our lives.

Do complete the FAFSA. There are many tutorials out there if you get confused, and it's worth the trouble! Financial aid is free money; there's no reason not to apply for the help.

Don't stress about your future. It's okay to go into college undecided, or to wait a year to apply for college, to get your gen eds at a community college before going elsewhere, etc. Be thinking about your interests and goals, but know that you have time to figure it out. What you thought you wanted to do might not intrigue you anymore, and that's okay.

Do apply for all the scholarships you are eligible for! As the financial aid speaker last Friday night put it into perspective, "If you apply for 50 scholarships that take you about an hour's worth of work and receive $2,500, you're getting $50 per hour." When stated like that, I think that sounds like a heck of a deal, so put in the time and effort and hopefully you will benefit.

Don't listen to everyone else. You don't have to be a doctor because your dad wants you to. You don't have to go to Iowa State because your sister goes there. You don't have to listen to anyone but yourself. So think of what you want. Think of what will make you happy. And go after your dreams.

Do work hard now. Your grades in high school, your ACT scores, and your activities and/or achievements can all help you get scholarships and get into the school you want. Prioritize school and focus in class. Get yourself ahead of the game by keeping up with success now.

Don't lie to a possible roommate. Be honest with yourself and him or her. Are you messy? What time do you really go to sleep? Fabricating better-sounding answers will only hurt both of you in the long run.

Do cherish the moments you have now. We hear that so often, but it's necessary. Be grateful for speech competitions and a superior rating. Be grateful for the first win of the basketball season. Be grateful for the people you get to experience high school with and the people who are supporting you along the way. Be grateful for every day, good or bad, that you have spent in these halls because they have made us who we are.

Wrestlers compete in Cascade tourney, Wright finishes first

This past Saturday the Maquoketa Valley wrestling team traveled to Cascaded to compete in the Cascade Invitational.

Musicians join forces with other conference students

by Emily LaGrant

On a cold Monday morning, 11 students headed off to Alburnett to participate in the Tri-Rivers Conference Honor Band. There they worked under the direction of Thad Driskell from Jefferson High School.

The students played a mixture of pieces from a calming ballad to the music from Guardians of the Galaxy for the concert at 7:00.

"It's always a great experience for students to play under a different director as well as with a much larger band," said Mr. Hadley.

Students viewed the event positively. Riley Sternhagen said, "It's always an amazing experience to play with such a large band. It's an event no one regrets going to."

Students participating were seniors Tamala Askeland, Emily LaGrant, Shaylyn Trenkamp, Riley Sternhagen, and Taylor Guthrie; juniors Colin Wendt, Nichole Winter and Bryant Meyer-Kemp; and freshmen Kelly Winter, Maddie Lahr and Jon Seibert.

New cook joins staff

by Nichole Winter

In case you haven't seen her in the kitchen yet, we have a new cook! Her name is Kendra Langel. She has been working in the kitchen for a couple of weeks now so we decided to drop in and ask her a few questions to get to know her.

Tell us about your family. "I'm married. I have a 6 year-old son Teagan, a 3 year-old daughter Anniston, and a 13 year-old step daughter Alyssa."

We understand that you are a Maquoketa Valley graduate. What year did you graduate, and who were some of your teachers? "1998 and some of my teachers were Mrs. Temple, Mr. Huegel, Mrs. Spellberg and Pam."

Why did you choose to work as a cook for Maquoketa Valley? "I did it to be more involved with the school district and to have a more similar schedule to my kids."

What is your favorite school lunch? "So far it's the taco salad."

If you haven't met Kendra yet, stop by the kitchen and say hi!

Grenade

One bad choice equals one grenade. You make choices for yourself. As human nature we take in consideration the positive and negatives things we will gain or lose when making a choice. When you choose the dark road that leads to regret, you choose those consequences that follow it. Every time we make a choice, we are self aware what might happen to us. But do we really make choices just for ourselves? If you don't have the decency of making the right decision for yourself, at least make the right decision for those who surround you.

I know individuals who chose to take that road of darkness, and they seem to forget one thing. Through that entire journey of bad choices and bad decisions, they put those consequences not only on themselves but the people who mean the most to them. Most of those who chose this journey lack self respect, and they lack self love. But my message to you is to not forget your teachers, your coaches, your best friends, your siblings, your innocent grandma, or the old lady in the neighborhood who has been watching you since you were little. These are the people who are really facing the consequences of your poor choices. You have the ability of becoming a grenade and disappointing everyone in your reach just by one choice.
