Fall performance held

Concert band season has begun! The high school band along with the fifth, sixth, and junior high band shared their musical talents Tuesday evening at their fall concert.

Vocal students audition for all-state

Six vocal students rose to the challenge and auditioned for the highly selective All State choir this past Saturday in Independence. Although none of the students were selected, the students recognize the value of the audition experience.

Megan Beaman and Nicholas Chen auditioned as a duet as did Andrew Hildebrand and Paige Panosh. Tim Harmon and Andrew Kloser had solo auditions.

Freshman Paige Panosh said she decided to audition for All-State because she was up for the challenge of having more complicated music. "I had gone to All-State camp at Wartburg College over the summer to prepare myself for All-State auditions, so I did not want to let that learning go to waste. It was something fun and challenging that I took a risk with, even if I didn't succeed in getting in."

Sophomore Nicholas Chen stated, "I feel that because of all-state auditions I now have an idea of what it takes to get to all-state. I can say that I've gained a better understanding of what I can do as a singer and what I need to improve on as a singer because of all-state auditions."

Freshman Tim Harmon said he auditioned because Mrs. Mueller encouraged him to. He's glad he did: "I now realize you can't be nervous for anything. You have to be on top of what you're doing at all times to get somewhere in life."

A goal of the audition process is to help students become better musicians and learn hard music, Andrew Kloser noted.

"This experience has given me the knowledge of what to expect next year, and it has helped me to better develop my dynamic skills in singing," stated Paige.

Senior Megan Beaman, who has auditioned previously, summed up the experience: "I wouldn't be the musician I am today without having tried out. I had no clue how long to hold notes for, and I didn't have enough confidence to make mistakes in front of people without feeling awful. Trying out has taught me so much, I highly encourage anyone who is into music and is looking to better themselves to try out."

Students support drug-free lifestyle

Football team ends with 7-2 record after loss to Bellevue

The Wildcats finished their season with a 7-2 record, but it wasn't good enough to get the wild card vote to make the playoffs. West Branch won the district.

The season ended for the Wildcats at Bellevue with a 21-39 loss.

The defense was put to the test again in this game. Leading tacklers for the night were Brock Hillers with 8.5, Robert Hildebrand with 8, Garret Hogan with 7 and Heath Gibbs with 5.

Tyson Tucker grabbed an interception and recovered a fumble.

Offensively, Tucker made good on 15 of his 23 passes. He made contact with Hillers in the end zone. Hillers had 74 yards on his six receptions. Norman Wilson gained 73 yards on his five catches.

Tucker ran in for two touchdowns and was successful with a two-point conversion. He had a total of 86 rushing yards.

Robert Hildebrand pulls down a Comet last Friday night. He had eight tackles for the night. (photos courtesy of Lesa Parmely)

Hogan had 58 yards, and Mitch Smith had 14 on three carries.

Polo Pillon was successful on his one PAT.

Derek Becker averaged 21.3 yards on his 7 kick-off returns.

Boys finish fourth at districts

by Chance Downs

Last Thursday the MV Varsity Boys Cross Country Team competed at the District Meet held in Solon. The Wildcats entered the race ranked 12th but in the end couldn't compete with the tough runners of Bellevue, Starmont and Calamus-Wheatland. The boys compiled a 4th place finish with 157 points. The Varsity Boys' final individual times for the year were:

17th	Chance Downs	17:46
25th	Brenden Hogan	18:10
28th	Tate Trenkamp	18:26
32nd	Derek Mensen	18:37
55th	Mason Lubben	19:37
60th	Daniel Hunter	19:52
73rd	Jon Seibert	20:16

I personally am proud to have been apart of such a hard working and dedicated team. For those seniors who are moving on: Brenden Hogan, Sean Hucker, Mitchell Neuzil and Alex McCusker, thank you for your time. As for those who will return next year... the bar is set. It's time to improve.

Volleyball season comes to an end

by McKenzie Lansing

The Cats played in the second round of playoffs on Monday at home against East Buchanan. They started out the night with a win but fell to the Buccaneers, 1-3. Scores were: 25-20, 11-25, 24-26, and 23-25.

Leading in serves was Maddy Anderegg, having success with 19 of 19 serves. Payton Ries also had a great night serving. She had success with 17 of 17 serves. Abby Holtz had success with 10 of 10 serves. Leading in aces was Payton Holtz scoring 5 total. Macy Hoeger and Maddy Anderegg each had 2 aces.

On the offensive side, Maddy Anderegg led in assists with 9 total. Abby Holtz had 8 assists. Maci Frieburger led in kills, with a total of 8. Payton Ries and Emerson Whittenbaugh each had 7 kills.

On the offensive side, Payton Ries had 5 big blocks. Abby Holtz was our dig leader of the night, with 16 total digs. Maci Frieburger had 11 total digs. Macy Hoeger and Brooke Wilson each had 10 digs.

Olivia Hoeger goes up for a spike against East Buchanan Monday night.

This was, unfortunately, the last game of the volleyball season for the Wildcats.

Athletes of the Week

Name: Chance Downs
Sport: Cross country

What do you enjoy most about cross country? I think what I love most about Cross Country is the sport itself. Some may look at Cross Country as just running, but I look at it as a sport of strategy.

How has cross country changed you? I first went out for cross country simply to get in shape, but the more I ran, the more I got into it. I now look at cross country as more than just a workout. Most of the credit going towards Coach Meehan and Coach Dever.

What has been your favorite memory of cross country? My favorite memory of Cross Country season this year would have to be when Derek and I decided to run for an hour. I'll also always remember when Mason, Jon, and I were cheering on the Junior High Runners at Independence and Mason's voice cracked twice.

Where would you love to have a meet? I think it would be neat to go out of state for a meet.

STUDENT OF THE WEEK

Derek Becker

You've been nominated because you bring a positive vibe to class. What's the key to happiness? Well.....fishing was the key of happiness but that "burnt to a crisp." So what's happiness???

What class do you enjoy most? Why?

Biology, because Mr. Bruening seems to get more and more interesting ;)

What extracurricular activity do you find most rewarding? Why?

Football, because you build brotherhoods and become dogs. It's more than just practice during the week and games on Fridays; it's a bond with your brothers.

—Derek was nominated by Mr. Bruening

Fine Artists of the Week: Fall musical

Name: Tim Harmon

What role do you play in the musical? I play Reuben, the oldest of the brothers.

What's your favorite part of the show? My favorite part of the show is my solo; it's in an Italian Accent.

What's your favorite memory from rehearsals? My favorite memory would have to be doing the Angel in Heaven dance break and getting my toes stepped on.

If you could play any role in any musical, what would it be? I would want to be Maui from Moana.

How has participating in the musical affected you? Participating in the musical has really made my life busy, and almost every night of the week I get home at 9 or later.

Name: Brian Heims

What role do you play in the musical? I play Levi, one of the 12 brothers.

What's your favorite memory from rehearsals? Being told that I was going to be a playboy for Potifar's wife

How has participating in the musical affected you? I learned to become a better actor.

Birthday Shoutouts!

by Chance Downs

It's never too early or too late to tell a fellow classmate Happy Birthday!

This week's birthdays are:

Garrett Hogan, Cloie Wilson - 11/1

Name: Emma McDowell

What role do you play in the musical? I'm Mrs. Potiphar and a dancer

What's your favorite part of the show? The Potiphar scene is simultaneously my favorite part in the show and my least favorite part. I have to flirt with three guys and try to "seduce" Joseph played by Tony Offerman. It's a tad awkward but once we got through it a few times, it became a funny scene to do. I also get to wear a feather boa so that's pretty cool.

What's your favorite memory from rehearsals? Shelby and I were filming a dance that we had just choreographed and I went to flip the page in my music and ended up ripping it. We caught our reactions on camera which was just a solid minute of us laughing.

If you could play any role in any musical, what would it be? Veronica Sawyer from the musical Heathers

How has participating in the musical affected you? It showed me that you can mess up a dance, line, or an entire scene, but as long as you're confident no one will notice. Also, I can sashay now.

Name: Andrew Kloser

What role do you play in the musical?

Pharaoh

What's your favorite part of the show?

Hanging out with friends

What's your favorite memory from rehearsals?

Falling over the edge

If you could play any role in any musical, what would it be? Romeo in Romeo and Juliet

How has participating in the musical affected you? It makes me a lot busier, but helps me to be more well-rounded.

Did you know?

Here are some spooky Halloween facts for you!

- 10% of children prefer to get gum for Halloween... they must be high schoolers.
- Ancient Greeks believed that gingers turn into vampires when they die, but who can say they're wrong?
- If Halloween spooks the life out of you, you might have samhainophobia.
- Pennywise, the clown from the movie It, was inspired by John Wayne Gacy. He was a real serial killer who worked as a party clown.
- The largest pumpkin ever grown was 836 pounds!
- In 2015, Iowa's favorite Halloween candy was Twix.
- The doll in Annabelle is based off a real life Raggedy Ann doll, thankfully the directors changed it and spared our childhood favorite doll.
- Harley Quinn was the most popular Halloween costume in 2016, due to the movie Suicide Squad hitting theatres that year.
- The original title of the horror movie Scream, was Scary Movie.
- A haunted house in California makes $200,000 in 20 days!

Netflix & Chill

by Emma McDowell

Make Happy- An untapped genre that is all over Netflix are comedy specials. Many comedians have gotten their stand up acts on Netflix, but none stand out more than Make Happy. Starring Bo Burnham, this comedy show isn't a typically stand up act. Burnham has set himself apart from the crowd by performing comedic songs instead of telling jokes. It's an interesting thing to hear; the lyrics are witty and the tune will get stuck in your head. Personally, my favorite song in this show is "Lower Your Expectations/If You Want Love." Burnham's humor is best described as dark and dry. His sarcastic personality comes across in every line he delivers, and I am living for it. However, his brand of humor is not for everyone. Trust me, I've gotten plenty of weird looks from my friends when I try to show them his acts. So, if you love self deprecating humor and catchy songs, sit down and enjoy the show.

Brain Teaser

by Mason Lubben

A boy is walking down the road with a doctor.

While the boy is the doctor's son,
the doctor is not the boy's father.

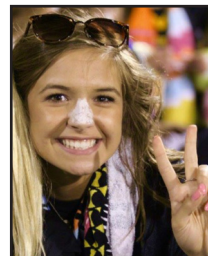

Then who is the doctor?

A: The doctor is the boy's mother!

Josie's Jibber

by Josie Young

Chances are everything. You take chances that could lead to a good impact, or a bad impact. You take chances that could make or break your future, and could lead to a lifetime of regrets.

But taking a chance could make change your next year or two for the better. People nowadays are scared of taking chances because people are scared of failing. But if we do not have any failures, then we will not learn or advance.

This plays within our social life as well. If you don't take the chance to talk to someone, you could be missing out on how your experience at an event is.

So take your chance. Go for it. You may fail, but don't be scared of failures because the failures are what make us better.

- With all the pumpkins around, fall is definitely the most gourd-eous season.
- I'd tell you a chemistry joke, but I wouldn't get a reaction.
- *What do Italians eat on Halloween? Fettuccine Afraid-O
- *I ordered 2,000 lbs of Chinese soup. I had Won Ton.
- *What do you get when you cross a snowman and a vampire? Frostbite.

Tales of TPing

by Rejji Smith

Sliding into your... dog poop?

I was TPing someone's porch when I glanced down the driveway and saw three sets of headlights. I quickly gathered John and Joe* (names have been changed to protect their identities). We ran around to the back of the house to hide. We saw someone with a flashlight walking around the yard. We found out later that they were cops. I quickly jump behind a bush and slide into the grass, right over dog poop. My group had to deal with the smell the whole night. I've never worn those pants since.

Moral of the story: If you have bad luck like me and this TP'er, always expect the unexpected. Maybe bring an extra pair of pants. Accidents happen, you know.
