Musicians compete at solo & ensemble contest

On Saturday, April 1st, the band and choir traveled to Cascade for Solo and Ensemble Contest. Both the band and choir did very well overall.

Those who received a one rating for a vocal performance were Lawson Roof (solo), Kiesha Stelken (solo), Megan Beaman (solo), "Stone Circle," Girls Chamber Choir, Madalynne Naab (solo), and "Love is Love." There were also twelve vocal two ratings and six vocal three ratings.

Instrumental one ratings were awarded to Colin Wendt (piano solo and percussion solo), Kailyn Hogan and Jaiden Porter (clarinet duet), Gabriela Guetzko, Lexi Deutmeyer, Jordyn Kemp and Hunter Glass (saxophone quartet), Brian Heims (percussion solo), Kelly Winter (trombone solo) and Nichole Winter (flute solo). There were three instrumental two ratings and three instrumental three ratings.

Schedule change in plan for next year Quinceañera fun

by Mason Lubben

Hey there Wildcats! Next year a lot of changes will be coming to our school. As we all know, the renovation process has started, but that's not all.

Next year, the school schedule will be completely different. Starting it off, school will begin at 8:03 and will end at 3:20. Although this may be scary, there is good reasoning behind it. According to Pam, "There has been talk of a longer school day for a few years now...Teachers are going to be scheduled to a longer contracted day."

That's not all our new and improved school is changing. WIN time will now be moved to the end of the day. WIN will start at 2:57 and end at 3:20. Pam stated, "WIN time at the end of the day fits the schedule the best. Also, it will make it easier for athletes who have to be dismissed early for sporting events"

Continuing with the new schedule changes, instead of going periods 1 through 4 before lunch, we will go periods 1 through 5. Because of this, lunch will be from 12 to 12:30. "The schedule works best this way. It also gives the cooks fifteen minutes in between junior high and high school lunches to prepare," said Pam.

So there you have it, there are a lot of new and exciting changes coming to our school next year. Hopefully all will go smoothly and Maquoketa Valley will be better than ever. Have a good weekend, Wildcats!

The Spanish I classes held their annual Quinceañera celebration last Thursday.

Left: The second hour key players were Jaiden Porter, Emma Hill, Cloie Wilson, Matt Hucker and Mason Lubben.

Above: The seventh hour leads were Derek Becker, Morgan Hermanson, Alex McCusker, Emma Jones, Emmy Prindle and Holly Offerman.

STUDENTS OF THE WEEK

Kelly Winter, Chloe Roling & Kristin Lucas

Nurse Mary has commended your efforts and dedication to TEL. Why did you choose to be part of this organization?

Kelly: I wanted to be more involved. I also wanted to be a role model for the younger students here at school, and be able to teach them about alcohol and drugs, and why they're harmful.

Chloe: I wanted to be apart of something that was bigger than myself. No matter how big or small I wanted to make a difference and take part in a good opportunity.

Kristin: My sister was the one who originally got me started in TEL, but after a few meetings I really began to enjoy it for myself. It's so educational and beneficial and there's always lots of ways to participate. I went to training at Ewalu so I could also be a part of TSN, Teens Say No, and help educate the sixth graders about tobacco and its negative effects.

What is the most valuable TEL activity you've been a part of? What made it valuable?

Kelly: TSN, teaching the 6th graders. It was a great experience for me, learning different ways to teach younger students and how they learn and listen best. I feel like they enjoyed it and learned a lot from all of the TSN people coming down.

Chloe: Day on the Hill was the most valuable and fun. Going to Des Moines, being in a different environment, surrounded by powerful people, and having your voice being heard was a powerful thing that I wouldn't trade anything for.

Kristin: I had an opportunity to take a trip to the capitol in Des Moines for the Day on the Hill with a small group. We were taught more about alcohol and marijuana and then trained on how to call our representatives out of session. We were able to discuss alcohol and marijuana laws with our representatives and express our concerns surrounding these substances. It was a very beneficial day. I learned so much, not only about harmful substances and their effects, but also about laws and how the capitol works.

What other activities do you think TEL should add?

Kelly: We could add more activities for the high school, and involve them more.

Chloe: Anything that gets you to take part in the community. I like hands on activities and trips, so I wish we had more of those.

Kristin: Through TSN, we educate sixth graders about tobacco. I think it would be rewarding to reach out to reach out to younger students. So many are exposed to tobacco products and have grown up around them and don't realize all the negative side effects. The more they know, the less likely they will be interested in trying it.

Fine Artists of the Week

Name: Alex McCusker

Activity: Spring play

What is your role in the spring play? Smeagol

What do you enjoy most about being a part of this show?

Having a character that I enjoy playing as, and interacting with a lot of other people.

What will audience members enjoy most about the play? How dumb the characters are and how many references to other Disney movies.

If you could star in any TV show, what would it be? Rick and Morty, because of the ridiculous adventures and to just have a conversation with Rick.

Name: Katilyn Deutmeyer

Activity: Spring play

What is your role in the spring play?

Blood Packet Girl

What do you enjoy most about being a part of this show?

I have a lot of friends that are out for play which makes it fun. Also on how funny the play is.

What will audience members enjoy most about the play?

The humor! It is so funny and I can't wait to perform.

If you could star in any TV show, what would it be?

The Office just because of how funny it is.

Binge Worthy

Rebekah & Amanda:

The Phantom of the Opera: The Phantom is in charge, and what he says goes. He brings Christine into the limelight, and makes her a star. When his plans do not go the way that he wants, he gets angry and makes sure that his point gets across. While wearing a mask the whole time, to hide part of his face. He tricks Christine, and meddles into her life. A musical full of love, heartbreak, sadness, and moments of joy. This musical is truly amazing, and must be seen by everyone. And come on, who would pass up an opportunity to watch a movie with Gerard Butler?!

Rebekah:

Full Ride by Margaret Haddix:

Becca's father has been put in jail for stealing money from innocent people. When her father was sentenced for 10 years, Becca and her mother's lives stopped. What were they suppose to do? People were out to get them. They had to move away from home and start over. But how do you create a whole new life? What can you say, and what can you not? When Becca is getting ready to go to college, she starts to discover many things she never knew about her father's crimes. Many twists and turns make for one exciting book. A good read!

Clouds sung by Zach Sobiech: An inspirational story is behind this fantastic song. Mr. Cassutt showed my class this song my 8th grade year, and it has stuck with me ever since. Zach was diagnosed with cancer and was told that he only had so long to live. He embraced live and did everything he could in the time that he had left. This included fulfilling his dream of writing and producing. I absolutely love this song, and it is definitely worth listening to, most likely on repeat.

Carry On sung by Fun: I love this song, because of its beat and the way that it sounds. It talks about how even through bad times in life, or if we ever alone we have to carry on. We have to continue to battle and fight for the life that we want. An amazing song!

Amanda:

Thirteen Reasons Why: (Netflix Original Series)

Hannah Baker is just like you and me, a teenager just struggling to get by. But for Hannah it was too much and she ended her own life. Clay Jensen thought his life couldn't get worst until the day a package arrives on his porch. Inside are 7 tapes, on the tapes is someone he thought he would never hear again, Hannah. Clay discovers just why Hannah decided to end it, all thirteen reasons. Hannah recits a life of loss, betrayal, and absolute horror. This t.v. adaptation of Jay Asher's book was simply heartbreaking. I can not necessarily say I enjoyed watching this show but it was definitely eye opening and very important to watch. I highly recommend everyone to check out this show. (Just know that you are never alone.)

Shiver by Maggie Stiefvater: Grace has always watched the wolves behind her house. She felt connect with them. Even after her attack she was never scared by them, they made her feel safe. Sam has been watching Grace from the woods, he always admired her bravery. He waits for the day that he will return to a human. When the two finally meet their lives are forever changed. This book is full of romance, action, and adventure. A definite read for fans of the Vampire Diaries and Twilight.
