Winter enters VFW art contest

Kelly poses with her unfinished patriotic artwork. She submits it by Sunday.

Talent comes in many forms, and Kelly Winter is putting her artistic abilities to the test as she enters the Veterans of Foreign Wars Creative Patriotic Art competition.

Kelly is in the process of finishing a painting of her maternal grandfather, Ray Gallagher, who served in the Marines. The painting includes the flag and bullets from his funeral behind a framed picture of him. Kelly used a picture her uncle had sent her to help her draw her grandfather, whom she never had the opportunity to meet.

This painting, along with a written explanation of how her artwork recognizes veterans who have served an important role in our country, will first be submitted to the local VFW chapter. If it is selected as a winner, it moves to the state level where it will be judged in April. From the state level, it could be submitted to the national contest. The winner of the national contest wins $15,000.

Kelly said the process has been a challenging one, especially since she wants the painting to be realistic. "It's been hard knowing it's going to be judged." She said she wants everything to be "just perfect," so it has been a bit stressful. She added, "I'm proud of what I've done." She is currently in Fundamentals of Art, and she has also taken Drawing I.

Kelly said that after the contest is over, she'll hang the painting in her house.

Golfers look for bright season

The MV golf teams have been at it since Mar. 11, and just this week the weather finally allowed them to get outside. The teams are once again under the helm of Mr. Andrews and Mr. Besler, and this year Joe Winter joins them.

Coach Andrews said the girls team should be strong. The team has everyone returning from a team that made the regional final and came within four strokes of qualifying for state. Kelly Winter qualified for state as an individual.

"Our strengths this year is the experience we have coming back and our overall team morale," stated Coach Andrews.

The boys team should also be competitive, claimed Coach Andrews. "A strength of this year's team is the experience we have coming back." The team should have several veterans leading the way.

Girls track team has great promise

The girls track team has competed indoors, and the outdoor season is awaiting them.

Mr. Dunlap returns for his seventh year as head coach, and his optimism for this team shows. "We have a very athletic team this season top to bottom. We have a strong group of upperclassmen who will be good leaders and role models. We have a great group of freshmen coming in that will fill in some holes nicely. We lost a couple of distance kids and a sprinter and a great hurdler from graduation last year, which will be hard to fill. We also lost a very good sprinter Brooke Wilson to injury during the basketball season. We have a large group of athletic freshmen coming in which should help us in all areas but they are inexperienced and only time will tell how quickly they can step in and be a productive team member."

One top contender on the team will be senior Sam Wall, who ran both the 100m dash and 200m dash at state last year. Sam also broke the MV all-time 200m dash record with a time of 26.12.

Another top returner is Lydia Helle who qualified for state in the shot put. During the season Lydia threw a 38'5.25" shot put and got 9th at the state meet. Lydia was only a sophomore and we can expect some great things to come in both the shot and discus from her.

Maddy Anderegg and Hannah Lahr are the only other seniors on the team.

Coach Dunlap stated that Maddy has been a very reliable sprinter for the MV team for all four years. Maddy has worked really hard in the off season and should have a great season for us. Hannah Lahr came out for track for the first time this season and will be throwing shot and discus. "She has been picking up the techniques quickly and is working hard," stated Coach Dunlap. "I hope for a good season out of her as well."

Allie Knipper, Jaiden Porter and Kailyn Hogan are the rest of the MV juniors who all have had nice seasons in the past and will be a big part of our success this season, according to Coach Dunlap. "Allie and Kailyn are excellent sprinters and Jaiden is a good distance athlete who will need to be a leader for us with a sizable group of freshman distance kids joining our team this season."

As for how the team will fare this year, Coach Dunlap stated he knows the competition in this area will be tough. "North Linn won the conference last season but won't be as good as they have been," Coach Dunlap stated. "They are a team that can never be taken lightly though. Alburnett has a great group of kids and didn't lose much if any to graduation. They should be the team to beat this season. Springville, Lisbon and Maquoketa Valley will all be in the hunt and I think it's going to be extremely close in the TRC."

Activities involved in during high school: Football, Track and Field, Speech, Musicals sophomore and senior years, Plays for all four years, Band, Jazz band

Which activity affected you the most? How? I couldn't tell you which one affected me the most; they all have influenced me in some way or another.

What is a favorite elementary/middle school memory? That is a long time ago. I really don't remember much.

If you could give advice to a freshman, what would it be? These years go by fast. Make the most out of it, go out for everything, get out of your comfort zone, or you will end up a senior with regrets.

What do you appreciate most about Maquoketa Valley? Honestly the staff. We have some of the best teachers and coaches here. They are always willing to help you out.

If you could relive any moment in high school what would it be and why? I have too many. From being the first one act in 27 years to make it to all state speech. The play "Game of Tiaras." Emma McDowell getting her butt stuck in a trash can. Replaying my last game of high school football.

Who is your most inspirational teacher? Why? You're gonna make me choose one?

If you wanted people to remember you by a song, which one would it be? "Carry On My Wayward Son" by Kansas

What does your future (college and career) look like? I don't know. I would like to either be an engineer (of some kind) or an electrician, But who knows? Things change.

What is your dream job? I don't quite know, I don't really have one, but I do know that it has to be and will be something that I will enjoy doing every day.

What's the hardest thing you've ever had to do? I think that it is hard to fully answer that question because we are young yet; we have a long way to go.

What one event has most impacted your life so far? I currently can't answer this. It's only when we look back that we see how our choices lead us to where we are going. But right now I'm in the middle of that process. Come back to me in 10 years.

What event from high school do you hope your classmates still talk about at your five-year class reunion? My lawyer says I can't legally say that here.

Austin Snyder

Activities involved in during high school: Baseball, Basketball, Golf

What is a favorite elementary/middle school memory? Hands down for elementary would be Kaela getting stuck under the merry-go-round during recess. For middle school I would have to say either making the lip dub videos in our home room classes, or hearing Mr. Cassutt's interesting stories.

If you could give advice to a freshman, what would it be? To go into high school being yourself. Trust me, we are not here to impress anyone. We walk across the stage in the same outfit, getting the same diploma. Also do not procrastinate. Your stress level will go through the leaking roof.

This school has many extra curricular activities that are available as well as job shadows. If you could relive any moment in high school what would it be and why? Any night during any of the homecoming weeks. Probably the night I got ran down by a truck across town in attempt to teepee a house.

If you could give advice to a freshman, what would it be? I would encourage them to make friends with the upperclassmen! The upperclassmen have already been through what you are about to go through, so use their experiences to your advantage. When I was a freshman the upperclassmen were my ride to many of the games! They also helped show me what to do and what not to do in high school.

What do you appreciate most about Maquoketa Valley? One of my favorite parts about Maquoketa Valley is the people. We have teachers that will literally do anything for us, and we have a good group of kids that attend Maquoketa Valley! We also live in a very supportive community. I think that's one of the perks of going to a small school.

If you could relive any moment in high school what would it be and why? If I could relive any moment, it would have to be when I performed at All-State my freshman year. It was an experience

I will remember forever!

Who is your most inspirational teacher? Why? For me, the most inspirational teacher would have to be Mrs. Lewin. She is a teacher that is really easy to connect with and someone who would literally help a student with anything they need. She was also a teacher that I could always understand! Another teacher that has been very inspirational would have to be Mr. Dunlap. This year I chose to take not just one art class but three, and these were my first art classes throughout high school. I am not the most artistic person, but Mr. Dunlap truly helped me improve my artistic abilities. He also is someone who is always there to talk if you need someone to listen! I also like how he is someone who will joke around with his students.

If you could give advice to a freshman, what would it be? If you show up and do what is assigned by your teachers and do what is expected then you should succeed no matter what. If you could relive any moment in high school what would it be and why? I honestly wouldn't choose to relive high school. It wasn't "the best four years of my life." I am going to miss not having responsibilities, but I will not miss high school itself.

Who is your most inspirational teacher? Why? Mrs. DeVore has been one of my favorite teachers since freshman year. She has taught me many things throughout high school. One main thing I love about her is that she relates to her students. If she is having a bad day, instead of yelling at the kids and taking it out on them she will take herself out of the bad day and really focus on the students. She has such a good spirit and she has a positive attitude about many things. She taught me not to care about what others think and she could always make me smile. I would walk into her room being a little freshman and just talk about how my day was going and she would listen. Though I haven't talked to Mrs. DeVore much senior year, she will always be one of my favorite teachers.
